P4C

- An enquiry based approach to open up children's learning through the exploration of ideas.
- Gives children the possibility of seeing that their ideas have value, and that others have different ideas that have value too.
- They realise that they don't always have to be right.
- Builds confidence, gives children a voice and can improve reading skills in terms of reading for understanding.

Set on Thursday

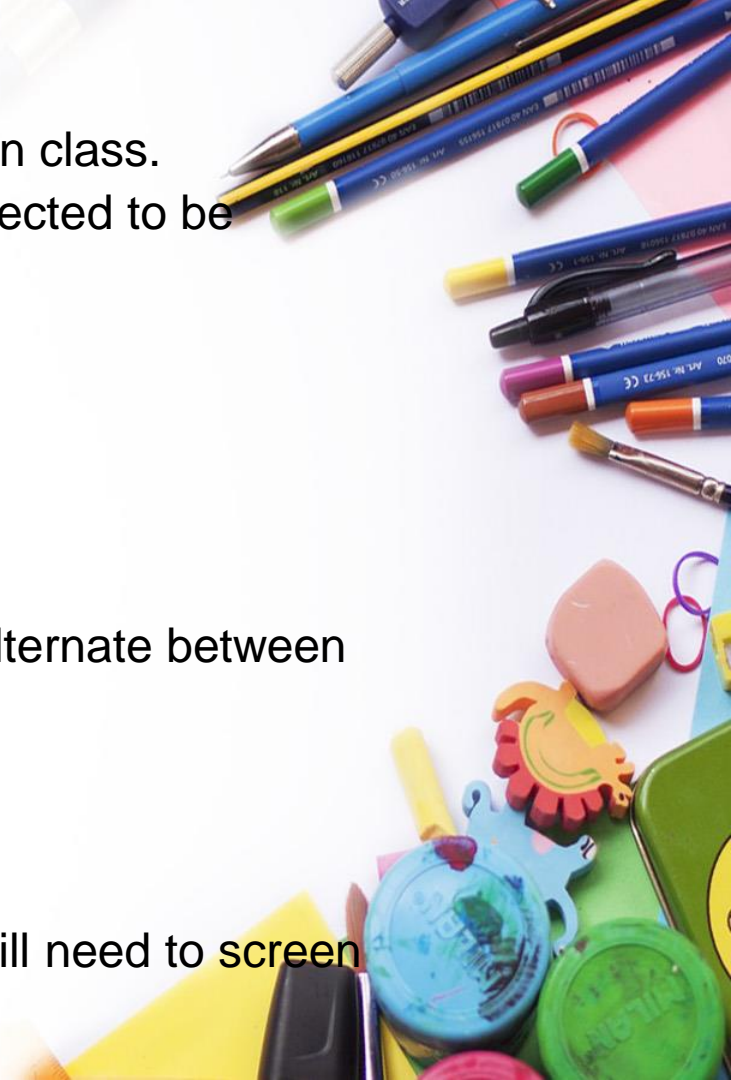

- MyMaths (due in the following Thursday).

Set on Friday

- Reading Comprehension (due in Monday)
- Spellings (tested the following Friday). These will alternate between the termly spelling star and weekly spellings.

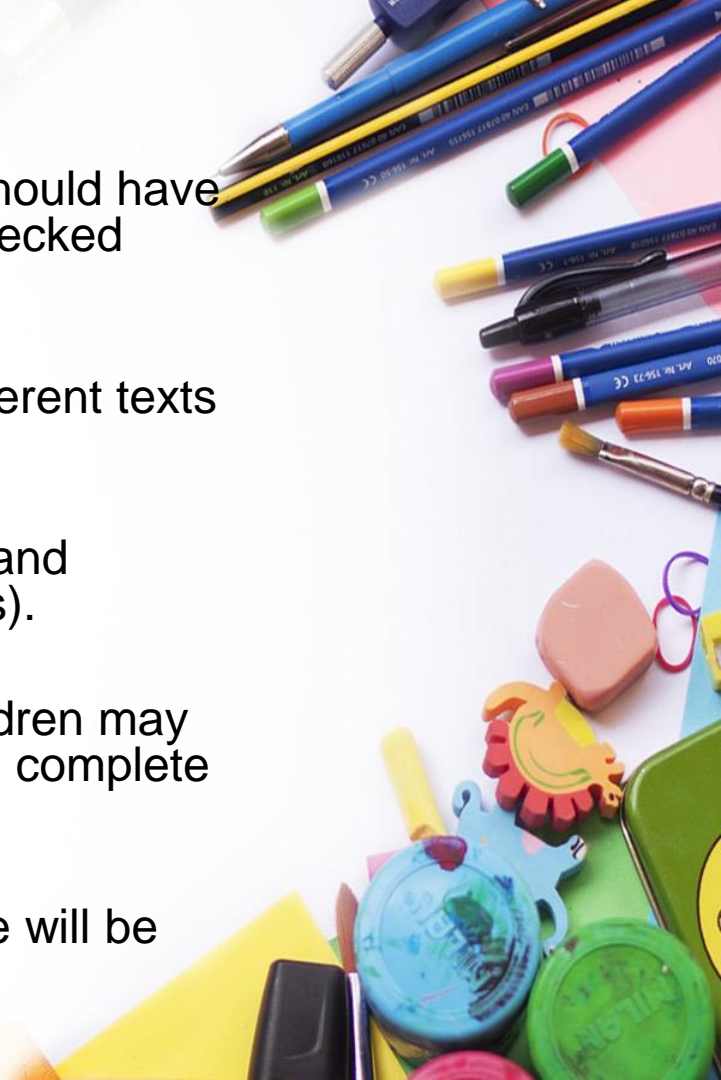

Set Daily

- Reading
- Competencies and times tables.
- Some will have times tables on Purple Mash and will need to screenshot their results to post on Google Classroom

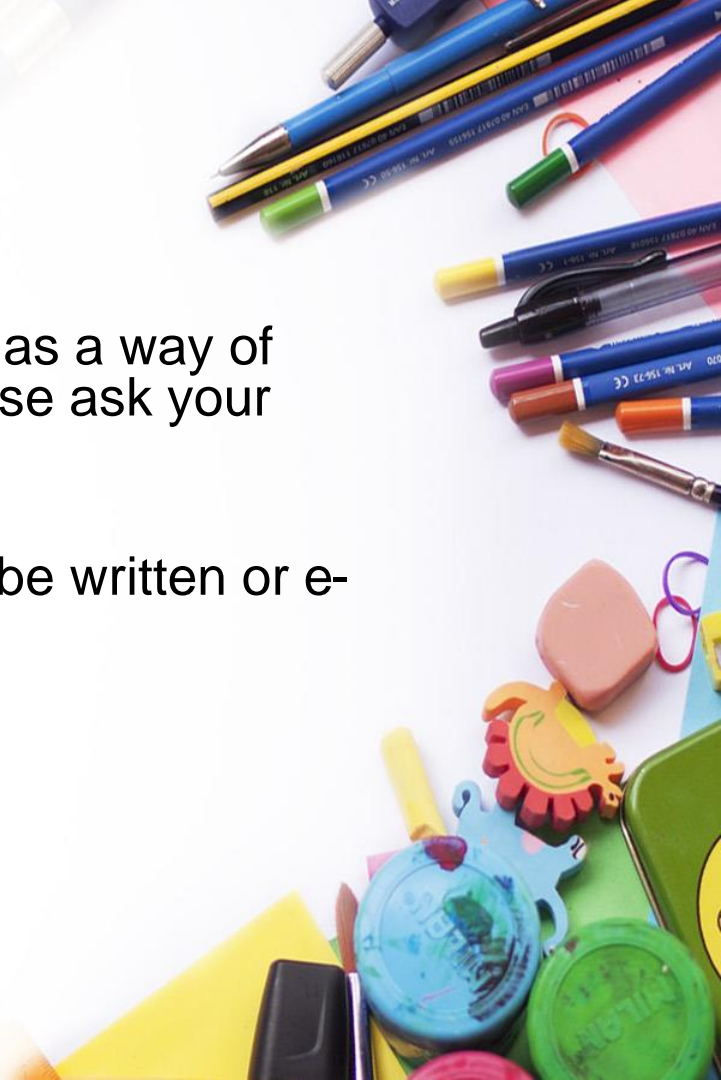

Homework

- All children should read at home every night and should have their reading records signed daily. These will be checked every day by myself or Mrs Ivey.
- Please ensure your child is reading a variety of different texts and genres.
- It is expected that homework is always completed and handed in on time (except in special circumstances).
- If homework is not completed by the due date, children may be asked to stay in for part of their lunch break and complete some or all of it with me.
- If children are having difficulties with homework, we will be more than happy to go over it again with them.

Google Classroom

- We will continue to use Google Classroom as a way of setting the homework for the children. Please ask your children to check their Google Classroom.
- Contact between school and home should be written or e-mailed separately.

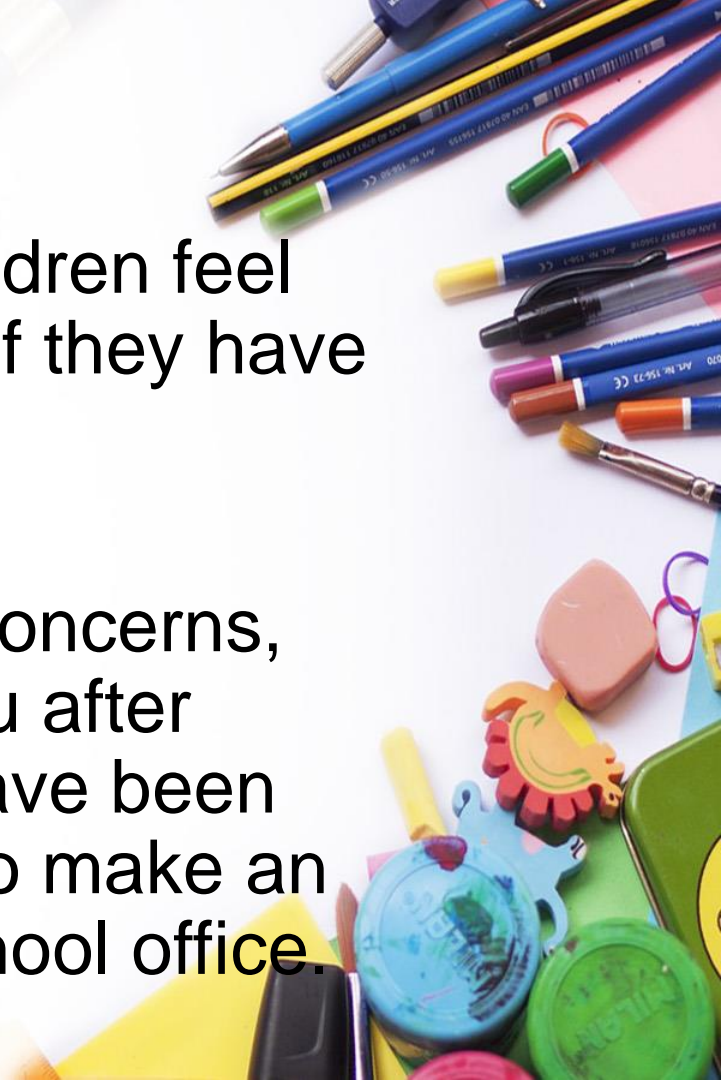

Term time absences

- All term time absence requests must go through the office and are reviewed on a case by case basis.
- These will only be authorised in exceptional circumstances.
- Holidays during term time will not be authorised.

Communication

- It is very important that the children feel they can talk to their teachers if they have a worry.
- If parents or carers have any concerns, we are happy to call or see you after school when all the children have been collected. The easiest way is to make an appointment is through the school office.

End of Day Procedures

- In Year 5 children can be released to go home on their own if the school has received your written permission.
- We would just like to remind you if children are going to be picked by people other than yourselves, they will only be allowed to go if the school has received an email for that day.
- It is essential you notify us immediately if your child's after-school arrangements change .
